

It is very interesting to note that in this Ayah from the Injeel Sharif, Hazrat Isa Al-Masih did not say that He will get peace from Allah Taala and give it to his followers. Instead he says "MY PEACE I GIVE UNTO YOU!" In other words, Hazrat Isa Al-Masih owns peace.

In my desperate need and search for peace, shall I become a follower of Hazrat Isa Al-Masih so that I can finally have the peace I have been craving for all my life?

Dear Friend, your search for peace can come to a great end right now if you will become a follower of Hazrat Isa Al-Masih (the Lord Jesus Christ) and ask for peace in His name. He promised His followers, "If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it." (Injeel Sharif, Surah Yahya [John] 14:14). "And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." (Injeel Sharif, Surah [Philippians] 4:7).

WHERE CAN I FIND PEACE?

I am a sinner and I am in need of peace. Only sinners need peace. People who are in paradise do not need peace. The only being that does not need peace is God and He is the only being that can give peace to peaceless sinners like myself. I desperately need peace and I do not know where to find it.

In the face of this reality, there is one anomaly that I cannot understand. Every time I mention the name of my prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him), I must send peace to him. I am deathly scared if I do not send peace to my prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him). But the reality is that every time I send peace to him, I wonder how can I send peace to him when I do not have peace in my life and there is no peace in this world where I live. One can give only what he has – I do not have peace and therefore I cannot give or send peace to anyone.

I am told that my prophet, Muhammad (peace be upon him) is now in the seventh paradise, close to Allah Ta-ala. If he really is in the seventh paradise, then what does he need peace for in that most peaceful place? In fact, my beloved prophet (peace be upon him) should be the one sending peace to his followers from the seventh paradise.

The only possibility for my beloved prophet (peace be upon him) to be in need of peace is that he is not in a place where there is peace. This is a possibility that I shudder as I consider because in this case, I am helping him instead of him helping me. This thought seems to be kufar, but this situation places me in a place higher than my beloved prophet (peace be upon him) because I am fulfilling his need of peace. While I am in this world, I do not have peace, and how will I find peace in the next world where my prophet (peace be upon him) does not have peace.

The other day, I was talking with my Christian office mate about matters of faith and our conversation turned toward Hazrat Isa Al-Masih (Jesus Christ). Out of habit I tried to send peace to Hazrat Isa when my office mate stopped me from trying to send peace to Hazrat Isa. My office mate told me that he has complete peace because Hazrat Isa Al-Masih gives peace to his followers and never has He asked His followers to send peace to Him. He continued to say that the promise of Hazrat Isa Al-Masih to His followers is "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid". (Injeel Sharif, Surah Yahya [John] 14:27).
